Prayer focus: God is Awesome and will Overcome all Obstacles

Scripture Reading: Read Nehemiah 4: 1-14 - Enemies of God heard the people were rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem under Nehemiah's leadership; they were jealous and furious. The first thing they did was use the weapon of mocking. And guess what Nehemiah did? He said, "Hear, O our God" - Nehemiah's response of prayer was a great example. He didn't debate, he didn't form a committee, he didn't even deal with the enemies directly. Instead, he took it to God in prayer. Let's follow this great example and bring our RENEW project to God in prayer.

Reflections of the Heart – Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome. Nehemiah 4:14

Scriptural Prayer – Hear, O our God, as we continue our journey with the Here We Stand Sanctuary renovation. As we near construction completion, we pray for your guidance and support to ensure the initial enthusiasm from February will see us through to the end. Provide those on the construction crew with a renewed focus and a mind to work, as you gave those building the walls of Judah. Protect our sanctuary and maintain clear thinking so that there is no confusion with the approved project objectives and scope execution. May all who support this project remember that you, O Lord are Great and Awesome, and we should not live in fear of failure, but rather look forward to renewing our Sanctuary space for future mission work. May we surrender the project to you, O God, focus our eyes on You, and remain faithfully perseverant. In Jesus' Name, Amen.
